was with another company when working with Brian at Inventive Solutions

"I have known Brian for many years and have always been impressed by his dedication to clients and his high-quality invention disclosures.

Brian's invention disclosures are crisply written and well supported by excellent drawings. Inventions are helpfully described at multiple levels of abstraction, so as to support a variety of patent claims from broad themes to an assortment of detailed embodiments. Brian is very responsive in working with both his inventor clients and patent agents to refine his invention disclosures into patent applications.

The patent process can be mystifying, cumbersome and expensive, posing particular hurdles for individual inventors and start-up ventures. Brian offers an effective solution for such clients, providing searching, drafting and consulting services in a skillful, strategic and cost-effective manner." May 25, 2010
